

FINANCIAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION (FPA) MERIT SCHOLARSHIP Nomination Form

In order to reward outstanding assistants of CFP® certificants who have shown dedication to the financial planning industry, the College and FPA offer up to two scholarships per year to expand the knowledge and skills of those assisting CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certificants. These scholarships cover all cost associated with enrollment in the College's self-study Registered ParaplannerSM or RPSM Professional Education Program.

In choosing the recipients, the College and FPA review nominations of individuals who have already achieved outstanding success in supporting financial planning and who show promise of being future industry leaders.

- To be eligible for this scholarship, nominees cannot be currently enrolled in the Registered ParaplannerSM or RPSM Professional Education Program.
- Deadline for submission of nominations to the College for Financial Planning is April 1 annually.
- Nominations for candidates are accepted from both individuals and companies.
- Applicants will be informed no later than July 31 each year of the scholarship committee's decisions.
- The scholarship covers study materials, tuition and fees for enrollment in the College's Registered ParaplannerSM Professional Education Program.

Applicants must mail or fax this completed typed or clearly hand-printed form by April 1 of the current year. Please include: current résumé, statement of goals, and letter of recommendation from a professional contact. Letters should not exceed one 8½-by-11 inch typed page. Please send to the address listed below.
