

NAUHEIM Merit Scholarship Nomination Form

This scholarship is in honor of the late Ferdinand Nauheim, a founding father of the College and the second chairman of its Board of Regents. It is awarded annually to a recipient with five or more years of experience in the financial planning profession to assist in satisfying the educational requirement for the CFP® certification. In choosing the recipient, the College reviews nominations of individuals who have already achieved outstanding success in financial planning and who show promise of being future industry leaders.

- To be eligible for this scholarship, nominees cannot be currently enrolled in the CFP® Certification Professional Education Program.
- Nominees must have an undergraduate degree.
- Deadline for submission of nominations to the College for Financial Planning is April 1 annually.
- Nominations for candidates are accepted from both individuals and companies.
- Applicants will be informed no later than July 31 each year of the scholarship committee's decisions.
- The scholarship covers tuition and fees (not including textbooks) for enrollment in the College's CFP® Certification Professional Education Program.

Applicants must mail or fax this completed typed or clearly hand-printed form by April 1 of the current year. Please include: current résumé, statement of goals, and two letters of recommendation from professional contacts. Letters should not exceed one 8½-by-11 inch typed page. Please send to the address listed below.
